

~~SECRET~~

Journal - Office of Legislative Counsel
Monday - 23 September 1961

Page 2

50X1 3. [] Jay Sourwine, Senate Internal Security Subcommittee staff, called to say that the Subcommittee's hearing on Mr. Kirkpatrick's presentation involving the Communist handbook was going to press today. He added that the International Association of Police Chiefs would be meeting in Montreal from 10 September to 6 October. He believes the Association would be interested in Mr. Kirkpatrick's testimony and asked if we wished to distribute copies to the Association or preferred to have the Subcommittee do this directly. Sourwine was advised that Mr. Kirkpatrick was in contact with the Association and would mention this but suggested that if distribution was to be made that it be accomplished by the Subcommittee.

50X1 4. [] Delivered to Jim Kendall, Staff Director of the Senate Preparedness Investigating Subcommittee, the Agency's corrected copy of the Director's briefing of the Subcommittee on 18 July together with three copies each of the charts and maps used in the presentation and several inserts requested by the Subcommittee. The Subcommittee is to correct their copies and return our copy to us.

50X1 50X1 50X1 7. [] Returned to William McHale, in the office of Senator George A. Smathers, the letter which McHale had forwarded to us from [] I advised McHale that while [] appeared to be well qualified we could foresee no use of his talents at this time.

50X1 8. [] Stopped by the office of Congressman Victor L. Anfuso and, in his absence, requested his secretary, Miss Evelyn M. Carson, to convey our appreciation to the Congressman for forwarding information copies to us of the law memorandum concerning United States diplomatic recognition of a Cuban government in exile, which was prepared by the Legislative Reference Service, Library of Congress, and the Congressman's letter to the Secretary of State on the same subject. Miss Carson thanked me and indicated she was sure the Congressman would be pleased we had stopped by to express our appreciation.

~~SECRET~~